Curriculum Implementation

Teaching Expectations

History at Foundation Stage is covered in the 'Understanding the World' area of the EYFS Curriculum and is taught at St Helen's CE Primary using the 'Development Matters' guidance.

A new History unit is taught each term in Key stage One and Key Stage two. History knowledge is included in retrieval tasks and sticky knowledge assessment practise on a weekly basis.

Structure of lessons:

Retrieval:

- All children will participate in a short task focused on retrieving previously learned knowledge.
- The varied tasks aim to reinforce key knowledge and help students make progress across the curriculum.
- The knowledge being retrieved may come from past lessons, units of work or even previous school years.
- The intention is for students to permanently retain this knowledge and apply it in their learning.

Introduce new Vocabulary:

- All children will be introduced to key vocabulary at the start of each lesson.
- Teachers will provide definitions, examples and actions to help students remember the key vocabulary effectively.
- Students will be challenged to learn and correctly apply the meaning of these words throughout the lesson and in future lessons.

Teach:

- The teacher will share the core knowledge for the lesson with the children using a range of teaching strategies and quality resources.

Tasks- Collaborative

- Children are encouraged to work with a partner for collaborative learning.
- Tasks assigned are short and aim to facilitate discussion and cooperation.
- Students are expected to apply their understanding of new information taught.
- Collaborative learning helps students to deepen their understanding and build on each other's ideas.

Tasks- Independent/Group

- The children will work independently on a task or as part of a small group.
- These tasks will vary lesson by lesson and will require the children to apply what they have learned or apply their newly acquired skills.

Summarise-

- The teacher will summarise the learning that has taken place in the lesson explaining how it builds on previous learning and where their learning will take them next.

Reading in our curriculum

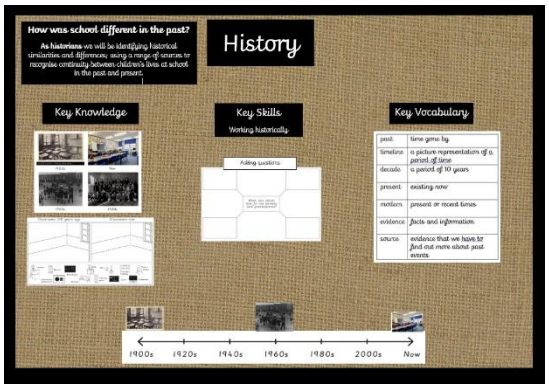

- Reading is a priority in all lessons for children. It is seen as the key to all learning and is essential for overall academic success.
- Children will read a variety of texts including fiction, information, poetry, online glossaries, information from websites and blogs.
- Quality texts based around the subject and unit will be planned for and indicated on long term plans. These texts may be used as a hook into the learning, referred to in the lesson or in the learning environment for inspiration and for children to access independently.

Use of resources

- The subject lead and class teachers must ensure they have the required resources for teaching including the texts that will be used to enhance the learning.
- The subject lead will carry out an audit of the resources in school for their subject.
- Teachers should discuss with the subject lead if any additional resources are needed.

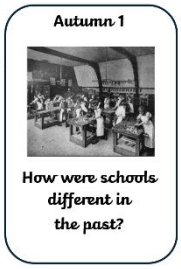

Working walls

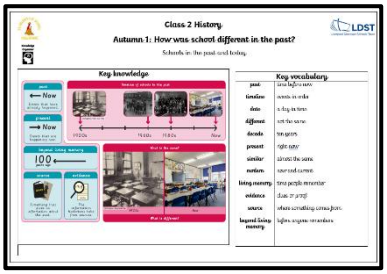

- Working walls will have the subject title and a description of the unit being taught starting with the phrase 'As historians we are learning to…'.
- Working walls should be used as a tool to support and retrieve learning and include key vocabulary and definitions, key (substantive) knowledge and how this is applied through key skills (disciplinary knowledge). Relevant timelines will be displayed.

Presentation in books

- Each new unit of work will have a unit cover followed by the unit knowledge organiser

- Each lesson will have a lesson label which will include:
  -Date
  -Unit title
  -Retrieval task
  -Learning objective
  -Key vocabulary for the lesson
- Units will finish with an exit task
- Teachers are expected to have high expectations of presentation.

Retrieval task: Test me: Today we quizzed our partner using our knowledge organisers.

LO: I can correctly place 4 photographs on a timeline.

Assessment

- Assessment should be used continuously to inform teaching strategies.
- Teachers should assess students on their knowledge after every lesson and plan for the next steps in teaching accordingly
- Lesson retrieval tasks, unit exit tasks and sticky knowledge jar retrieval exercises will be used to assess children's learning and are effective in addressing gaps in students' knowledge.
- Feedback and marking should be used in accordance with the school's policy to indicate student progress and next steps.
